The Class of 2003 Dedicates This Yearbook To Mrs. Paula Isgro

The students of the class of 2003 would like to give our deepest thanks to you for all of your hard work and dedication to our class' success. You have continually been there for us and we credit you with a large part of our achievements. What would we have done without your cut-to-the-chase attitude? From Play Comps to Yearbook, you have always been there for us to lend a hand. We will never be able to adequately express how grateful we are for all your help. One last time, Thank you Mrs. Isgro!

"For what its worth it was worth all the while, it's something unpredictable, but in the end it's right, I hope you had the time of your life." - Greenday

We finally made it! To my ladies: Erica, Jenn, Ash, Meg, Lane. A girl could not ask for better friends then you guys. Muah! Never forget: driveway discussions, Kiss concerts hace trampa, table talks, "you stifling..." Erica- my Blondie for life, tag-team, crying and colattas, late night phone calls, one headlight out, "it's just a Romy and Michelle kind of night" Jenn- my little perfectionist, Cotuit beach runs 02', "woowy mammof" Ash- my drama queen, its' alive! bra debates, "will you please get that thing out of my face!" Meg- just call her Flash, "hey guys, am I ok?" Lane- card-board boy, the "lamb," Seanna- wacky hair do's, "um, your pants are on backwards" Koppa- older men, Dave, dolphin swimming. The boys: Phil, Matt, Jay, Greg, Mike (my laugh): thanks for the memories, good times! Soccer girls- thanks for the endless laughs, and the "eventful" bus rides, remember "House Em, Spank Em..." Mom, Dad and Kell- You guys have been there through thick and thin, and I love you more than words can say! Kell- "the laugh" singing debut, sparky, I love ya Kay. Bruhn's &Ambrose's: you guys are the best! Class of 03, best of luck, and congrats!!

Phil + Matt, jeez, where did the time go. Seems like yesterday I was taking the Musket Idiot oath and losing my Airwalks in that dreadful swamp. Times spent at the "cliff", "tracks", and any assortment of nature in proximity to Matt's house or Smith's field had some memorable moments, far too many to list. Hey Matt your - ahh nevermind. Morrone, we've had some excellent sports matches over the years, the overall series is about even. Hey Dupuis! Mike "Texas Tornado" Dupuis, I challenge you to a boxing match and I will claim your title. Lynch, keep playing those skins man. Wanna jam sometime? Cadkey! Isgro, Avin, you are two classy guys. Paul, next time I'll let the boss know about the spatula. Stelmok, isn't your sister part of that? Well guys, I wish you all the best of luck in the years to come and I——Yah!, uh huh!, Really? Mom + Dad thanks so much for all your love and support over the years. Alexis and Vanessa, you two have given me some good advice and some even better torment. -In the grand scheme of things, I hope Joey will sit at my lunch table.

First off I want to say thanks to my one and only brother Matt, for always being there: and Cyble you better continue to treat him good. Now I am going to stop and tell you that through out life you have acquaintances, but every now and again you find a good friend, in my case I have two, Jay and Andy, and no matter how hard life gets or how low I may feel I know you guys will always be there for me and like wise to you two. To Jay, and all the great times playing ice hockey to building the shed, it was all great but nothing compared to playing on the game field. Andy a.k.a. "Big Guy" don't ever lose your belly, and Andy you have a big heart that some lucky girl will happily fill, you just have to be patient. Doug keep at it you'll start someday. Lisa, Danny, and Nathaniel good luck in Athol. Thanks to my coaches I wouldn't of made it without you, thank you Mr. & Mrs. Silva for all the help. Mrs. Montville don't go far, I'll still come to visit you, even if you do. To my soul mate Tara, how could I leave you out, Stop your worrying we will always be together, and I'll always love you.

Here it is our last year with high school. I enjoyed the years I had, good and bad. I won't see most of the people I go to school with now for a while if ever again. So I say to all of you good luck with whatever you plan after you leave. I want to send out my thanks to my family and friends, without them none of this would have been possible. Thank you to Jaymes, Jim L., Sacco, Kempton, and anyone else I forgot to mention if you and I were cool then a thank you goes out to you as well. Good times with you four. Sacco and Jim, lucky number 28. Kempton 3 a.m. the flashlights in my eyes. Well it's over goodbye and good luck.

These past 4 years have been the greatest. I can't believe it's over. Ashley O- you've been there for me through the best and the worst times of high school. Thanks for being there when my dad died. Mal- you're awesome! Keep Smiling, you bring light to everyone. Pinky and the Brain "Smell the Pencil". Allie, you amaze me with your strength and kindness. The Bridge! Steph Cook- My Math Buddy! Kate R- Remember the Ditch? Alicia- keep being you! Mrs. Babineau- Thanks for looking out for me and being there when I needed to talk. Mrs. Somma- you're the best teacher I've ever had. Thanks for all the advice. Jeffy- Thanks for taking me under your wing. I know I'm not always the easiest to deal with. Scott, Weasel, I love ya little bro. Mom- "Moopy" My best friend and my biggest fan. We've been through a lot huh? We did it though. I love you! Daddy- I know your watching down from heaven, I love you, you're always in my heart. For all the people I forgot, and the people I never got to know, you've all impacted my life in some way. Good Luck Class of 2003!

I can't believe we are already graduating high school. These past four years have been great. Thanks mom, dad, Kelly and Amanda for all your support, I love you. A huge thanks to my niece Molly and brother in-law, Mike, I love you Molly and Mike. Thanks to all of my grandparents, aunts, uncles, and cousins, you're the greatest. Justin and Brian, you're the coolest, don't ever change. Jess and Amy, you are two of the best friends I could ever have, thanks for everything. Mike M, and Mike L, thanks for a great two years on the golf team, I'll look for you two on the PGA someday. Bri: I will never forget the funny times we had together, playing golf, fixing "little stevey," and just hanging out, they were all great. To all of my other friends (Phil, Greg, Matt, Mike D, Paul, Jay, Avin, Christian...) I hope I will see you again soon after graduation, I will miss all of ya. Lastly a big thanks to all of the teachers for putting up with me for four years, thanks a lot for a great education. Only one thing left to say and that is... "SEE YA LATA"

Well what can I say these last four years have been exciting I guess you can say? I never thought that I would make it through high school. It seems as though it took forever and well now it's almost over. Its been a great fours years even though all the trouble I have had with my school work not really doing any of it but yet still passing. I couldn't have done it without the support of my family, friends, teachers, and girl friend at the time. The teachers I would like to thank are Mrs. Benestad, Mrs. Mitchell, Mr. Silva and most importantly Mr. Mulcahy. He has never let me down and helped me be a better student by doing oral presentations. Which I have never been able to do and I thank him for that. I would give shout outs to my friends but I don't have enough room for this write up to express what they have done for me. So I'll just say their names Ben, Jill, Courtney, Corrt, Mallory, Charlene, Nick and Jaymes. I want my friends to remember one thing; I will always be there for you. I'll always love my Sarajane.

I can't believe it's finally my senior year. These four years have gone by so fast and it has finally come to an end. I want to thank my mother and sister Bekah for all there help. There are some good and bad times in high school. Some good times are hanging out with friends or talking in the parking lot before you start the day. Then there was always Friday nights, there was the tragedy, slip and slide, or just driving down Burncoat Street. PoPo Val and Courtney I was so baffled by your insubordination. Courtney and Val we have had some fun times but there are just to many to list. Val remember the snow, I shouldn't go there because you have so much more against me. We also had some good times driving in the Daytona racing everyone or hiding in the hatchback. There will always be Wendy's and White Strips. Val and Courtney you lost your window privileges. But its all good. We'll always remember these times and we'll have more fun times when we're all in Rhode Island going to college. It will be a whole new adventure and I can't wait to start. Good Luck to the Class of 2003.

What a long, strange trip it's been. Alpha Team One…Go!!! Speen—Good times in the Jeep and at Trout Brook eating "ice cream;" Dan—Comfortably Numb, "CARESS!" (Jody + Keith ☺), you have to teach me that napkin trick sometime; Lila—"CAN I HAVE…" (good times at the Kingdom)—I swear to God there was only one knob; squirrels watching TV underground in the woods (Alicia—you weirdo.); Chris R.—boobox; Allie S.—just what does make that little old ant think he can move a rubber tree plant? Steph C.—Chicken tonight…BOCK!!! Jacky—"SWAN!" "I can see right through you!" Swimming 24/7 at Nausset Beach, your mom chasing horseflies with a shovel; Ashlee—Let's make biscuits! Andrew, always a pleasure (you elbow-licking freak!); And finally—Steve, Drew, Lila, Matt, Jon and Andy—no matter what you do or where you end up, always remember—"The kids are alright."

I can't believe it is already over. I love you Mom and Dad. Both of you have helped me so much. I couldn't have had a better pair of parents. I love you Bridget, Kelly and Erin. Thanks for being there ALL the time. I guess this kind of ends and era for the Dupuis family. Football was always fun. Greg, Mitch, Jay, Mike and Jim… you guys were some of my best friends and I loved playing with you for the five years. We all worked hard and stuck together to become a team. Maybe when were old and fat we will have the ultimate team dinner. Good luck to next years seniors. I will get to every game I possibly can. Coach Pucko and Coach Cook… you both helped me so much all through-out high school. I'll visit you and your future teams sooner rather than later. Playing West Boylston football is and always will be one of the best experiences of my life. Hey guys we all had a great time together in high school. Phil, Matt, Mike, Cow, Bob, Lynch, Paul, Christian, Jay, Ryan, Avin, and Joey. Good luck to everyone. Have fun and keep in touch.

Well that's it guys. It's finally over. It's time for us to become big boys now as we embark on our journey to college. I think that'd be a lot better if we could write these at the end of the year rather than at the beginning cause I have almost nothing to say right now. Well at any rate, we've had some fun times huh? Cruising in the jeep when it lost it's front tire as we were driving up the road to the school and then continuing to drive all the way to Steve's house. All those times we watched movies and played video games over the garage in 20-degree weather. All those nights we went and camped out on the lake and ate steak off a stick as we charred it over the fire. Well that's enough for all you. Randi, I love you. I know that we've had our share and his share, and her share of ups and downs, but we've always seen it though. College is going to be a big step in our relationship, but I feel that it will be in the right direction. I'm out of words. love you.

Well, my time has finally come, I AM A SENIOR and will never have to set foot in the school again. For the most part I have a lot of good memories from my experiences throughout my four years. One of the more memorable times was the Quebec trip; I'll never forget all the good times and laughs we all had. Lila and Becky keep on rockin'. Crazy Keith, you're a good kid and I hope you found the one that's worthy of your attention and affection. Jaxy we need some hardcore hack-age! Mr. Steenstra and Mr. Genova, I'll never forget all the picnics and Frisbee games we had at trout brook. Nikki, yeeaaaaaa!!!! Case, Black Beauty will run forever. Hey, Amanda R, what are you doing after school? Jodi, caress! All the experiences I've gone through and all the people I have met have made me who I am today, thank you everyone. I guess my only regret is not doing more stuff that I was interested in. Seeing as how I have a 200 word limit I just cant think of anything more to write. Oh, by the way Keith, its time to go.

How did senior year creep up so fast??? Oh yeah, I was reading!! Thank you to my parents for helping me with everything. To Nana and Papa for being there for me everyday, and Nathan for reluctantly putting up with my company. I'd also like to thank my teachers for being understanding and flexible when I needed them to be. Also to Mrs. Ethier, Mrs. Parker, and all the others in room 302 for all their help and immense fortitude in working with me. (as well as providing me with a reading room) Thanks also to the friends who have stayed with me through high school. Its been a great 13 years at W.B. Schools; I'll miss all the people that I've met over the years. Thanks to all of you for making these years good ones!!! To my classmates: Good luck in whatever you move on to!!!

I never thought this day would arrive, and yet here it is. 17 years have passed and each day I've grown a little wiser. Such wisdom enables me to realize that the one moment I've waited for so long, is coming all too soon. I'm graduating! I'm off to bigger and better things, but this means leaving all the little things behind. I'M GONNA MISS IT ALL. Mommy and Daddy I luv you two, you instilled me with morals, ethics, and patience. Jesse, Trav, Josh, and Lace I love all y'all. Stacey you are unique and fun, don't ever change; you're special just the way you are. Marcia (Mooshi), wish you were here, senior year isn't the same w/out my best friend by my side. To everyone else, I love you all and I hope to see you all again. I'M GONNA MISS THIS PLACE.

So this is the end of the four years we call high school. Wow. I'd like to thank my family for all the support they gave me in whatever I wanted to do. No matter what I chose, my family supported and helped in whatever venture I was interested in at the time. Mom and Dad, you guys gave all you possibly could and then more to help me excel, even though I was a pain, and I can not possibly thank you with words. Jenna, you're such an amazing girl, you've been the most generous and caring sister in the world; I thank you for maintaining these characteristics through my stupidity. To Grammy, Grandma and Grampa, and all my aunts and uncles, how can I thank you for your unceasing support and love? I'd like to thank all those people who helped me with my creativity (namely band folk) and I'd like to thank all those who paid $7 on Fridays or Saturdays to support my creativity. To All the friends and acquaintances, I have 18 words left, so I will trust you know all the specific inside jokes I would write if I had enough space left to write them.

My high school life has been relatively great, considering the many bumps in the road on the way. I can't believe I'm actually graduating and that I'm now 18 years old. I've witnessed a lot of negative things and many positive things, but it is now time to face the realities of life to another extent. It's time to use all of the knowledge we have gained in these four shady but exciting years of high school. I came to West Boylston high half way through last year and believe it or not I've really enjoyed it and had fun and I thank all of the chill for sharing the fun. Enough with the guppy guppy talk so far I didn't even think life could be this fun but It's been simply amazing I couldn't even come close to naming all my friends nor do I feel like sitting here and naming all them and most of them won't even see this year book but I love all of them deeply and would do close to anything for them. Five people that I know will see this year book and that I throw all my credit to would be the obvious my parents my dank brother and probably still to this day one of the most beautiful girls I know my girlfriend Kristy. Good look guys for everything. I wish the best of luck to all you goof-troops and don't mess up your life you only live once and if you got your head on straight you'll make yours a dank one.

First off, I'd like to thank Skitch, Mel, and Bill for all their support through the years. I'm not going to name all the friends, you know who you are. Soccer with the boys, and my favorite, the goof troop. As far as I am concerned, we are the play comps champions for eternity- lots of fun and misery along with that. Lunch, my favorite period, couldn't have been made more enjoyable without the help of a Mr. Joseph Bussolari, a true philanthropist. Phil, Greg, Jay, all the Mikes, Avin, Christian, Paul – just want to thank you guys for the best childhood ever, couldn't have done it without ya'. We must never forget our adventures together, and especially don't forget the misadventures. Train track walks, Wendy's runs, assorted "Avin Machines," trips near and far, megaphone fun, et cetera. Congrats class of 2003. We finally made it! Thank you so much to everyone who stood by me throughout the years. My girls: Christina, Jennalee, Lyndi: you've made my senior year so much fun (ni ni ni ni ni); good times at Café Dolce, late night movies, and laughing over nothing. Christina, my other sister: Jim who? Hazelnut and carrot cake please, fun family vacations in Canada and at the cabin. Jenna: 40 what!?, remember the time. Lyndi: good times at Hampton Beach. Paul, Phil, Jay, Mike, Avin, Matt, Greg, good luck in everything you do. Phil, the sarcasm was key. I'll miss you buddy. To the squad: I love you girls so much; awesome times at camp (2000) Paul- you have made my high school experience unbelievably amazing (party house, out for Mexican, buffalo walk). I will love you always! My sisters, Alli and Ang, I love you both, thanks for the love and advice. And of course, special thanks to my mom and dad for the encouragement, support, and love. I love you!

What's the deal? It's finally done with-4 long years of High School! Mom and Dad, you were right! It went by pretty fast. Even though I had a lot of fun, I am kind of glad that I am going. I will miss school and my friends, but not the homework and tests. I will miss having fun and cracking jokes with all my friends and seeing the rookie teachers blowing up at us in class. Football was great- you guys are the best. We had lots of fun! Good times making fun of other team members with Pete. I would like to thank my parents for pushing me to do good in school. Mom and Dad, thanks for all your help, I appreciate it. I also want to thank my siblings Melissa, Paul, Tara, you guys were always there for me and helped me through everything. I want to also thank Ma and Pa for always being there to talk to and giving me advice. "Destiny is not a matter of chance, it is a matter of choice; it is not a thing to be waited for, it is a thing to be achieved." –William Jennings Bryan

When thinking back over these past years, I am mostly at a loss for words. Personally, I do not have particular inside jokes of my own, or incredible events from all those Friday and Saturday nights. However, the things that I can take with me into the future are the great memories I've had at West Boylston High School. In the classroom and on the golf course for seven straight years, I've had a lot of meaningful, yet enjoyable experiences that have helped me learn a great deal intellectually and socially. No matter how many years pass by and how many changes I encounter in my life, I will never forget such things as how much we fun we had playing at Groton Country Club (Mike Morrone will know what I'm talking about), or how much fun we had studying European History (Greg and Paul know). To that short list, there are divers other memories that could be added, but they are memories which I believe will best be left unwritten. These high school years make up a period of my life that I can never forget and will never forget, for it is best said in the words of Jimi Hendrix who says, "You've got to remember."

Years will come and go in my life, but the memories of growing up will always stay. First of all, I'd like to thank my family for pushing me to always do my best and for all the good times we had together. Secondly, I would like to thank four of my bestfriends: Mallory, lots of laughs…Joshua locked in the closet with the huge lollipop, and never forget Timon and Pumba. Ashley, you're a degenerate (lol, j/k). I'll never forget your loud laugh, talking on the walkietalkies, the Halloween parties, but most of all I'll never forget our friendship. Marlene, you think your cool, but your not. We had lots of fun…getting stuck on the roller at 6 flags, walking everywhere all summer, and working at McDonald's. Randi AKA (sleepy), lots of memories…performing arts and the great massages by Michael, look out for the hamster crossing the street, oh wait, it's a cup (lol). You guys have always been there for me, we'll be best friends till the end. Saving the best for last, I want to thank the love of my life, Michael. It started as an eighth grade crush and turned into a dream come true. We'll always be together to hold each other and cuddle, I promise. I love you always and forever.

"It's not getting what you want, it's wanting what you've got. Live life to the fullest, for the future is scarce. The unexpected is the key to love. It can't rain all the time. Sweet Dreams Rob!"

It finally happened, I graduated. Normal for some, but for me it has been an incredibly long road. Even though I've gone through so much, like, two different high schools, a baby, voice lessons, acting in plays, singing in talent shows, the death of my brother Rob and so much more, I've made it. Something so simple as this makes me realize that I can do so much and that I am an amazing person of so many strengths and talents. This year I was blessed with a wonderful & brilliant man to whom I am engaged and I could never be happier. Travis, I love you! Mom, you're amazing! You've created me and now I will make you proud. Grams, you do WAY too much for me, and I greatly appreciate you for it. Dad, through the good times and the bad ones, you're still the man that I look up to and thank God for every day, I love you Daddy with all my heart. "Don't ever be someone's story, because you are poetry." -Jaxy Andersen

Hey guys we've made it! We had some rough times but it's been great. Jaxy, thank you for everything. You are the best. Can't wait to get our New York apartment. Cassie, thank you so much for listening in peer. Illana, I know you don't go to our school but I want to thank you for helping me, it means a lot. I'll miss our hugs. Sam, you really did not have to recognize me after Challenge day. Thank you for being so great. I want to say thanks to everyone for putting up with me. Allie, Steph, Seanna, Cassie-Lee, our lunch table was crazy. Hope, remember the water balloons and painting the lion, I think you still have my shirt. Drama class, what a blast? Chuck, Alisha, Brianna, Jess, Seanna, Tabatha, Amanda, Kayleigh, Maelyn, Caitlin, and Vanessa. Marlene, my name is not Mother Felicia. Steph and Jax, remember Vinny Testa's with National Art Honors Society and the rave in the car. Great times. Boston with TOADS was so much fun and so was the haunted house that Allie hates. Thank you mom, dad, Lindsay, Rebecca, and Nicholas. Thank you also to everyone I missed. I'll miss everyone. Bye.

It's finally over. Some people say that high school is the best years of your life. I guess those people didn't attend West Boylston High School. Just playin u know I love u guys, well maybe not love but I at least like you a little. Thanks to all the people who supported me through high school, the good times and the bad like my Dad and new Stepmom. It's been tough but things always find a way of working themselves out. Mrs. Isgro, u knew I couldn't forget you. Thanks for always being cool. To my friends and all the good times we had, Jay bone, Aveeny, Phildo, Matty boy, and all u other guys it was chill. A word of advice to everyone, move somewhere warm, cause winter here is too cold. Peace.

Thank you to my parents, Amy, and Meg, I couldn't have ever asked for a better family and I thank you for all the support you've given me. To all my friends, present and past: Thank you for all the days that I can never regret living, and would never change if I had the chance. Cassie and Allie, I love you guys, my life to this point could never have been as good as it is without you, and I thank you for always being there when I needed you. Too much pizza, plenty of music, and way too much driving around aimlessly. In other words, bliss. Allie, there've been good times and bad, but I'll always remember the good: Hanging with the Boylstonians, going to shows, having screaming contests, being cynics, and ice cream disasters. Cassie: thanks for putting up with me and pat; snood addictions, "caaaaandy?," listening to 80s music, and forced fun by arts and crafts. And sorry for near death in the volleyball incident. Chris: watching Shaq movies, extreme pogo sticking, and bleeding all over the bowling alley. Thank you to Mike and the Boylstonians, Avin, Pat, Patty, Ksenia, and Mike K, you guys rock.

Class of 03, this has been the best four years of my life, and I want to wish everyone the best of luck for the future, don't ever hold back, and reach for your dreams and make them come true. I'll miss you all, and I'll never forget you. MOM and DAD, you are my inspiration, without you I wouldn't have made it this far. Thanks for pushing me to do my best and always try. I love you forever and always. JESSY, aka Shipoopi, tour my best friend and I love you, good luck in school, I'll miss you like crazy. JAMIE, the love of my life, you have helped me through some of the roughest times of my life and stuck by me. I love you so much, and you will always hold a special place in my heart. It's over...it's finally OVER. Well anyway...we've probably had some good times right guys...come on back me up: the wilderness near a River, Robert Plant, and all through the Who, in front of the Buddha, pretty much wherever we could. Overall I have learned a few things from my time in the West Boylston school system: there's no greater thrill than riding down the street on a sparking rim, swimming in a algae filled, snapping turtle infested water hole is worthwhile to get your basketball back, spare parts is an excellent way of entertaining oneself and others (just kidding Parslow), flare's make great floatation devices, Bickfords was never the place to be, in the middle is a dangerous game, and there's no finer prom ride than that one can get from a twenty year old scooter. That's about all the wisdom I can bestow upon the future generations...oh one more thing: Mr. Smith I'll see you in the office at 2:05.

Well, High school is finally over!! Whether anyone likes it or not, these years have passed and that it is time to move on to the real world. I've had fun throughout these years. I would especially like to thank my grandparents for helping me make it during high school. To some of my friends: Dupuis, Greg, Minville, Phil, Genova, Beardsley, Lynch, Morrone, Matt, Ryan, Joey B, Avin, Adam, Rochette, Justin, Jay, Kittredge, Bob, Missy, Christina B, Amanda L, Patty, Katie, Lane, Jenn, Megan, Ashlee, and Lyndi, good luck in whatever you do in the future. I've had fun over these years at lunch, parties, and dances. Our class is great. We've won the play comps for 3 years, we swept the homecoming activities, and we've made it through some tough times. Hey football team, we had a good season and I wish the best to luck to you and hope you win next year. It's finally over. Good luck to the class of 2003.

Hey I would like to thank all my friends for everything. "Lot's of good times". To Mike well what can I say I wouldn't have made it with out you. We had a great time playing football. Well good luck in school bud. To Jorel stay out of trouble. Make sure you keep the fro going. You know you'll still be crawling back to my house for food or something or to use my pool. Brian stop messing with your car its good enough good luck brotha. Also to Megan no I didn't forget about you thanks for everything I had a lot of good times, good luck with school and everything (Unagi). And to my brother Justin for keeping me outta trouble all these years thanks for every thing Just. I will have a bigger truck then you someday hehe. Also To Jen you're the best babe. Thanks for always being there for me (Pub 99). I would especially like to thank my parents for helping me get through school you both have been a lot of help and I love you guys very much. Dad you'll get that truck (or bike) soon enough. And mom it's been long and hard but we made it through and I want to thank you for putting up with me for so long I love you.

Well, high school is coming to a close and it has given me enough memories to last a lifetime. First of all, to my girl, Lyndi, thank you for always being there for me when I needed someone, you'll be in my heart forever. Christina- the 3rd Wheel- is cheerleading a sport? Jenna- are you guys renting a movie? Paul and Amanda- Hampton Beach. Phil- Amazing. Matt- don't ever play this game again. Greg- How about a little home run derby? Clarky- I'll see you down in the Carolinas. To the rest of the guys and girls thank you for being my friends. To the boys on the golf team, good luck next year. Lynch, what a six years, just remember you can't spell dynasty w/o nasty. STATE CHAMPS!!. I will never forget pasta day, play comps, and Student Council. Good times. To all of my friends, thank you for making high school what it was. It was fun and interesting because of you. I'll never forget you all. Mom, Dad, Beth, and Anthony- thank you for everything that you have done for me, you have made me who I am today. Good Luck Class of '03. Good Bye WB.

Well this is it guys I can't believe we're finally seniors. Class of 03' I'll miss you; I will always remember the times we had together. I'd like to say thank you to my mom and dad for supporting me all these years, I love you guys. Sorry I couldn't come up with anything good for this write up, I guess that my high school experience wasn't as full as everybody else's. Thanks to all of my friends for the great times, hopefully we will meet up again after graduation. Minville, Hopewell, and Genova you guys keep on rockin'. Part of me wants this to last forever but another part of me wants to get out there in the real world to see what it's all about. During this year I often wonder where we'll all be someday. It will be interesting to see how some of us have changed and how some of us haven't. Well I better wrap this up; it's amazing how fast these twelve years have flown by. "Let us pray.
Lord Jesus it is you, who wakes me up every day
And I am forever grateful for your love..
..this is why I pray
You let me touch so many people, and it's all for the good
I influenced so many children, I never thought that I would
And I couldn't take credit for the love they get
Because it all comes from you Lord;
I'm just the one that's givin it
And when it seems like the pressure gets to be too much
I take time out and pray, and ask that you be my crutch
Lord I am not perfect by a longshot—I confess to you daily
But I work harder everyday, and I hope that you hear me
In my heart I mean well, but if you'll help me to grow
Then what I have in my heart, will begin to show
And when I get goin, I'm not lookin back for NOTHIN
Cause I will know where I'm headed, cause I'm so tired of the sufferin
I don't deserve what you've given me, but you never took it from me
If what you want from me is to bring your children to you
My regret is only having one life to do it, instead of two
Amen" -DMX

High School was great! Albeit we learned stuff, there was homework, and there was more homework (which I know I did every night). Aside from the hours of homework (which I did every night), and all the stuff I learned, there was jumping on Ryan's trampoline; Extreme Pogo-sticking (with one hand); me and Avin's 15th B-day party (fireworks, EXPLOSIONS at 3:00 am, and lots of orange string?) did I mention there's a coke on my desk and pretzels all over my floor?; snowboarding; walking places on half-days "at least its not raining"; Phil's 16th b-day present from me and Paul; exploding frogs and egg-yolks in science; my 16th B-day party with its food-fights; "here take my wallet before I do something rash"; St. Patrick's day '02 with the Dropkick Murphy's; getting lost in Harvard?; working at Jerry's; "my nose is bleeding profusely"; Pasta Days; aimless driving around, looking for bush drapeings, spheres of light, and scaring Nikki Dumont (BOOBOX); Driving to the beach, with millions of seagulls, and a broken window; the crazy time at the 99, with free crackers, scrambled TV, and a waiter who hated his job; Oldsmobile vs. Sentra Brian; and of course all the other stuff I did, said, and wrecked in the last four years!

"And after all we're only ordinary men" - Pink Floyd

Remember the time... Now who would paint their Jeep camouflage?... The cabin... I bet the kids at Camp Kadoodle don't have this much fun... All roads lead to Bickford's, But who really wants to go?... Right on "Piano man", "Quist Bros." forever... Ukrainian gold hubcaps... The Island... It's like "Nam"... The Buddha... Olympic torch run... I wish I could lick my own elbow... I only know of four hundred twenty things to do... Life so far has taught me this; If you never cross the line, you'll never know the other side... the roads will never change, just where they lead... Control is an illusion... "Why?" is key... Great minds think alike, but amazing minds disagree... Everyone has something in common... Earth day... I've got to tell you, it's been fun. There have been some ups, some downs, and some tows, but overall it has been a privilege and an honor that I only hope as you go through life you will always remember and cherish the memories and experiences that we have endured, I love you guys, But its finally over!!! To my fellow classmates: Where ever life may take you, whatever your choices may be, just remember one thing, we are the class of 2003!!!

Well, its over. These past four years have really flown by and we've had some fun along the way. First and foremost, I'd like to thank my family, especially my parents for always putting up with me and always pushing me to succeed. I couldn't have done it with out you. Then theres the crew (Amy, Bob, Bri, and Gubes). We've had great times. Big Bob, it's been fun. Just remember "cash money" and "hey, what's up good." Next, there's Gubes and all I have to say about you is you and your oyster crackers are on another level. We've had some good times. It's been real buddy. Hey Bri, so when's that Celica coming? After the Mustang, or before? I'll see you around kid. And lastly, there's Amy…we've been through so much together and had so many great times…the cape, New Hampshire, Hampton, Six Flags, Summer Jam, and always chilling at your house. I'll never forget them, you mean so much to me. Phil, what's up big guy? We definitely shoulda chilled more. Avin, going to the mountain and chilling once or twice. And to everyone else, I'm sure I'll see you around. Good luck in everything you do. It's been great!

Good times at WB. I started out at Major Edwards from Kindergarten until fourth grade. In Fifth grade I left and went to a private school through Freshman year. I returned to West Boylston for sophomore year and, it's been a great three years at WBMHS. I would like to thank my friends Allie Simmone and Allie Gardell, good times at Parkers, thanks for being there guys. I would also like to thank my friend Steph Cook, who's been my friend since back in the day. We've had our tough times but we always seem to get over it. I would also like to thank my other close friends, Adam, Missy, and all of my new friends from drama class, as well as others. I would like to thank my family for being there for me, my parents, my grandparents, my little brother Dominic, and my older brother Jason. Congratulations class of 2003!

Umm… I don't know what to say I guess it's all over here at West Boylston. I'm not sure if I'm happy to be moving on or sad that I'm leaving. First and foremost, thanks goes to my family. Without you guys I'd be nothing. Second, my friends, my life long friend, Mike Gibree. We've had so much fun. Nick, thanks for always being around. Sacco, we have gone on some crazy adventures. Fred and Ant, you guys made the most boring days of summer seem fun. Conway, you always made me laugh. Jim L., we had some good times. Mr. Leblanc, you were always my favorite. Mulcahy, you always gave me a chance. Most importantly I wanna thank (insert name here). Just about everyone has impacted my life. Thanks. I have so many memories of the good and bad. High School has made me see things that I never thought I'd see, but also things I hoped to never have see again. Overall I think its safe to say I enjoyed these four years and made some real good friends along the way. Keep in touch.

Hey Guys! It's been a lot of fun. I've had a lot of great times such as Play Comps, Coffee Houses, Football games, Homecoming week, running for treasurer for like 3 years in a row, and a whole lot more! To my friends: Kallie – Eni, meani, minei, moe..., My crazy selection of hats. You guys are the last people I would ever want to die with, and remember there is nothing more lovely than a wet pair of jeans! Hope – Anti super bowl parties, and 8th grade sleepovers! Crack out the cheesy horror movies and the Queji board! Jodi –The geek table! Making music videos in my basement, Dottie Marie, flashlight tag, and those crazy St. John's dances. Chris – Where's my remote? Trips to the beach, with out parents! Whoa! Adam – Let's cruise the strip! Comfy chairs in the library are great for sleeping! To everyone: High school has been great! From the broken light in my basement (We all know who did it!), to the terrible after prom party, but followed by the way cool after after prom party, and our defeat over all the other classes at play comps and homecoming 2002. It all rocked! So I guess this is it? Well Probably not, but anyway I'll see you all on the flip side!

"All I want for Christmas is reality. We'd all be so much happier if we all just dealt with it. It's still there! It's not going anywhere! All these little lies people use to maintain a "peaceful" little facade are making me tired. They want to say it, whatever it is, but they won't. Why not?" – Ainjel Emme

Life is not a race or a test. Trying to look good for college, slaving over homework, hiding under layers of make-up, working working working...and for what? There is no enjoyment in living for others' expectations. High school can be whatever experience you make it be. You are the only person responsible for your life and happiness. Control the experiences you go through. You're going to live with yourself for the rest of your life, why not take a chance? Learn things you're passionate about, skip class to learn something new, tell your teacher what you really think; be honest with yourself for once. There is only one chance to live life. Even if you make a bad decision, you are deciding. Acting, doing, speaking, thinking instead of yawning and complaining. Work will always be out there, waiting for you. The things you dream about doing, the people you want to meet, the life you want to lead. Those cannot wait. Enjoying your education, and your life - that has to come from you. I've been told, "No one ever says on their deathbed, 'I should have spent more time at the office.'" Value each second, because you will never be able to get it back.

Hey kids, we're finally out of here, woop woop! It's been four long years to many, but it was all good. Wut up to all my cool buddies Adam, Bryan, Allie, Melinda, Jess, little Menard, cousin Cait, Alaina, D-Dog, Kate, Rachel Macy, and the rest of the pride of the W.B. chorus. Grampa, tearin it up on Sunday nights, the only person I have an hour conversation about the deehaws. Melinda, hangin at Wendy's, and the adventure packed P-Town parade. Allie, hiding from the escaped convicts and from unwanted movie night guests. Andam, Black Stallion and Hot Tomalie. Good times on the cruuuise. Turc n' Squirt, we are still having a geek table reunion sleepover I promise! Many laughs with the classic Julienne, the missing singing Wayne's brother. Hola to Ange, and the rest of the original W.B. singing softball team. Thanks mom. Jillian, you're a great sister, and very cool. Hi Beautiful Nan and Papa. My number one fan, Dad. We finally made it 2003! Reflecting back on the past four years, I thank those who gave me some of the best and worst times in high school, because both have help to shape the person I am today. To all my teachers, thank you for helping me to become a better student and person in society. To the Debers-I <3 you girls, fun times at "Café DB." Missy-venga boyz, remember the whirlpool talks, "hup" ya. Erica-my beautiful blonde friend, fumblin', crusin'-use your brakes! Jenn-the talks, sleepovers, concerts "What's anti-freeze?" 1-2-3-red light,go! Megan and Lane, fun times at the sleepovers and lunch time talks. We had fun guys-Homecomings, pep rallies, play comps, dances, f-ball and b-ball games, Pub 99, it's been great! To all the S&S crew, Kristen, and Cheerleaders-luv you! I want to thank my fam. for helping through the late night projects, the college search, and all the other stuff. "Mom, you always were the perfect fan." Daddy, I'll always remember the three rules, and "Follow that Bird." Audi B, I leave you with some advice:have fun in school 'cause it will fly by, and you can do ANYTHING you put your mind to! Hey everyone!!! It's great to see you all more this year, now that I have more free time. I know I left you all last year, but it was for educational reasons. I have enjoyed these last two years just as I did my freshman and sophomore years at West Boylston. I've only known most of these kids for a year or two, whereas I have been in school with all of you since kindergarten. Although I am having a great time at WPI, I do miss all of you. I've heard a lot of great stories about what has been going on in my absence and I wish I could have been there to see it all and have more memories to share with you all. I'll be back at the school visiting a lot this year since I am still able to be on different sports teams. I hope to see you all around school, and good luck this year and next, when we all go away to college.

I finally made it!! Thanks so much mom for everything you have done, I couldn't have done for me, I luv ya. Dad, Mike, and Joe I luv you guys so much and thanx for everything. Sarah & Court- PoPos for life- "Look a cone!" Pumpkins. Yelling out the windows on route 9. Gina, Charlene, Cait, Kristin, wut up? Kempton- napkins + sunroof- ur still fat. Mikey B you can join my kazoo band. Lunchtime stalkers & breaks. It's all good. Keep doors shut while vehicle is in motion. Early morning parking lot crew. 105mph on 290 (wow I'm goin kinda fast.) Slip & Slides can hurt but not as much as running backwards into a pole. Happy Music. Where's Burncoat Street? Train! Look a detour sign. Road Trips. I'm kinda thirsty. Munchies. It's 2a.m. do you know where your kids are? Wut up to everyone I missed. Thanks WBMHS for everything. Class of 2003. Peace

"On the day that you were born
The angels got together
And decided to create a dream come true
So they sprinkled moondust in your hair of gold
And starlight in your eyes of blue."

Jen, you have given us the most rewarding gift of a lifetime, yourself, your love, determination and ability to succeed. Now take the building blocks that you have been given and build upon them a bright and promising future. Always there for you!

Greg Anderson

Love Vanessa and Alexis

Greg!
Wishing you a word of success!

Ksenia Varlyguina

CONGRATULATIONS!

Ksenia-
We hope you go where there's laughter and romance, and you walk the streets of Barcelona, swin cenotes in Yucatan, ride the subways in Moscow, and frequent clean, well-lighted cafes. We hope you converse all night with friends, hear distant childish laughter from brilliant stars, and see rainbows and sunsets from distant untrammeled beaches.
Go well, Ksenia. And, go knowing your school photos rest on the fireplace mantle, that your X-files posters hang bravely in the old airs of your room, that Sim City is safe, and that the silly old dog you call Dindusha will wag her tail jubilantly whenever you come home to visit.
With love,
Lena, Jeff, Luda, Elly, Tosha, Katia, and Linda
